

PESTER & ROSSI

Ruby Pester and Nadia Rossi have been working together across Scotland, and internationally since 2008, under the collaborative name Pester & Rossi.

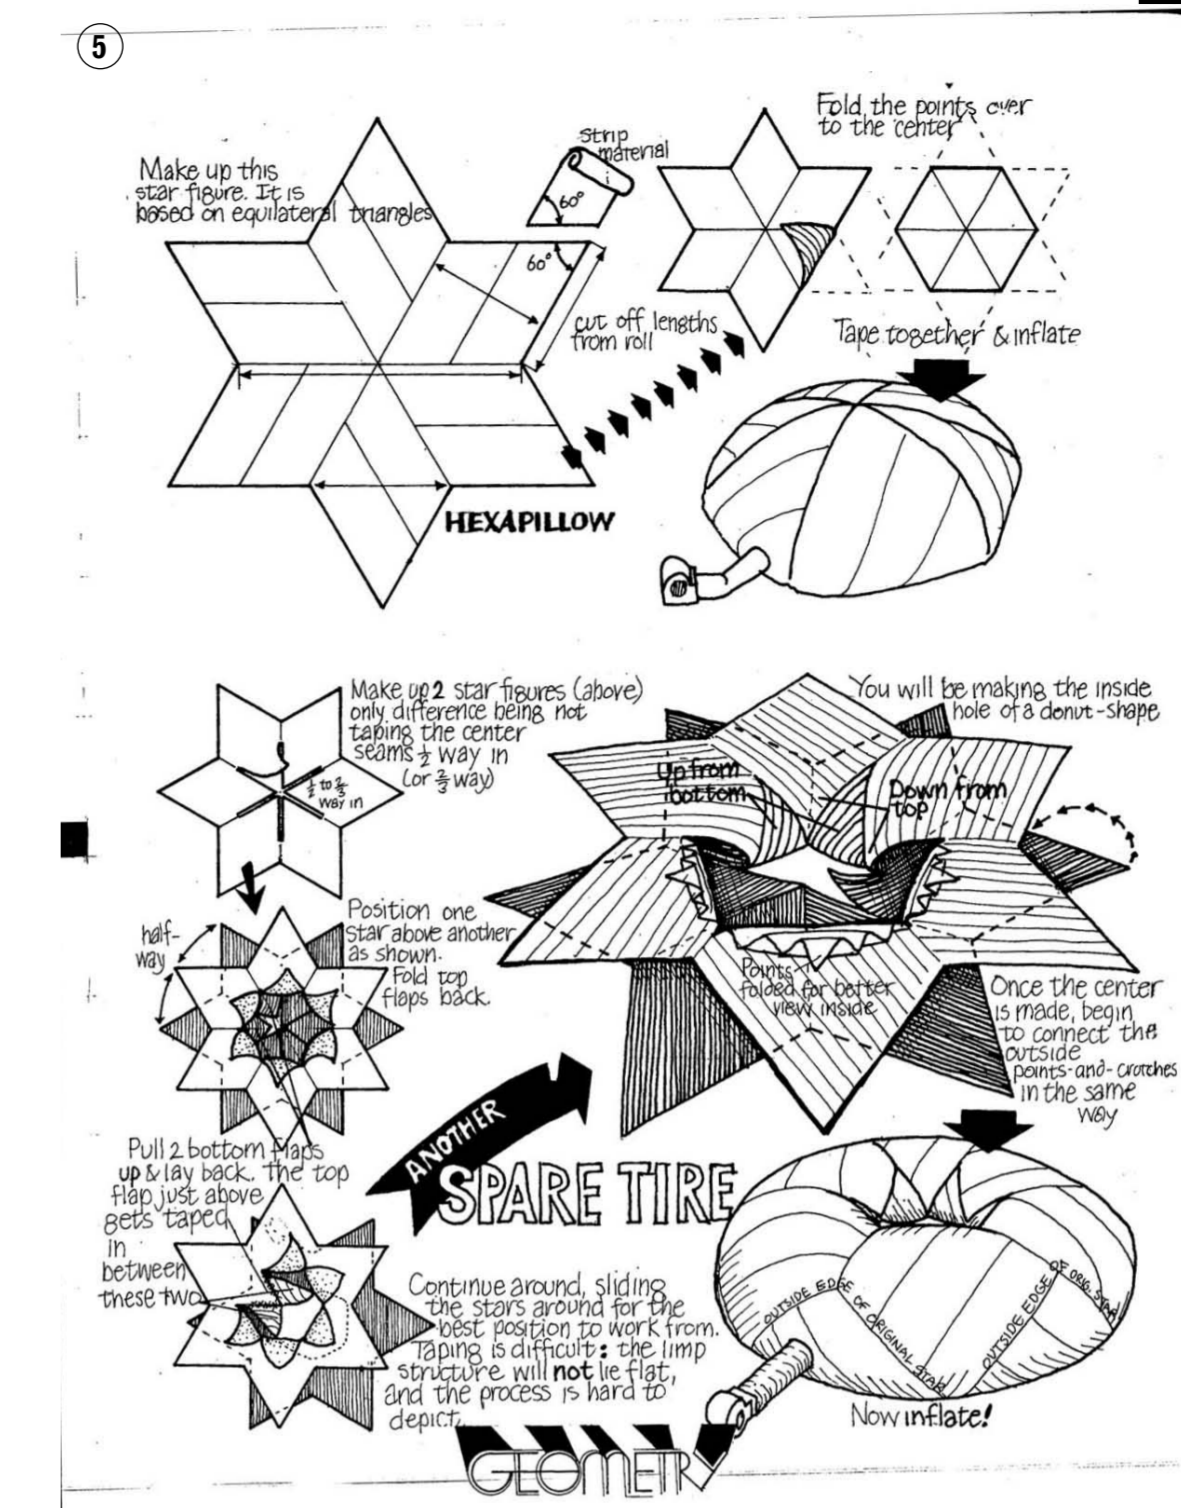

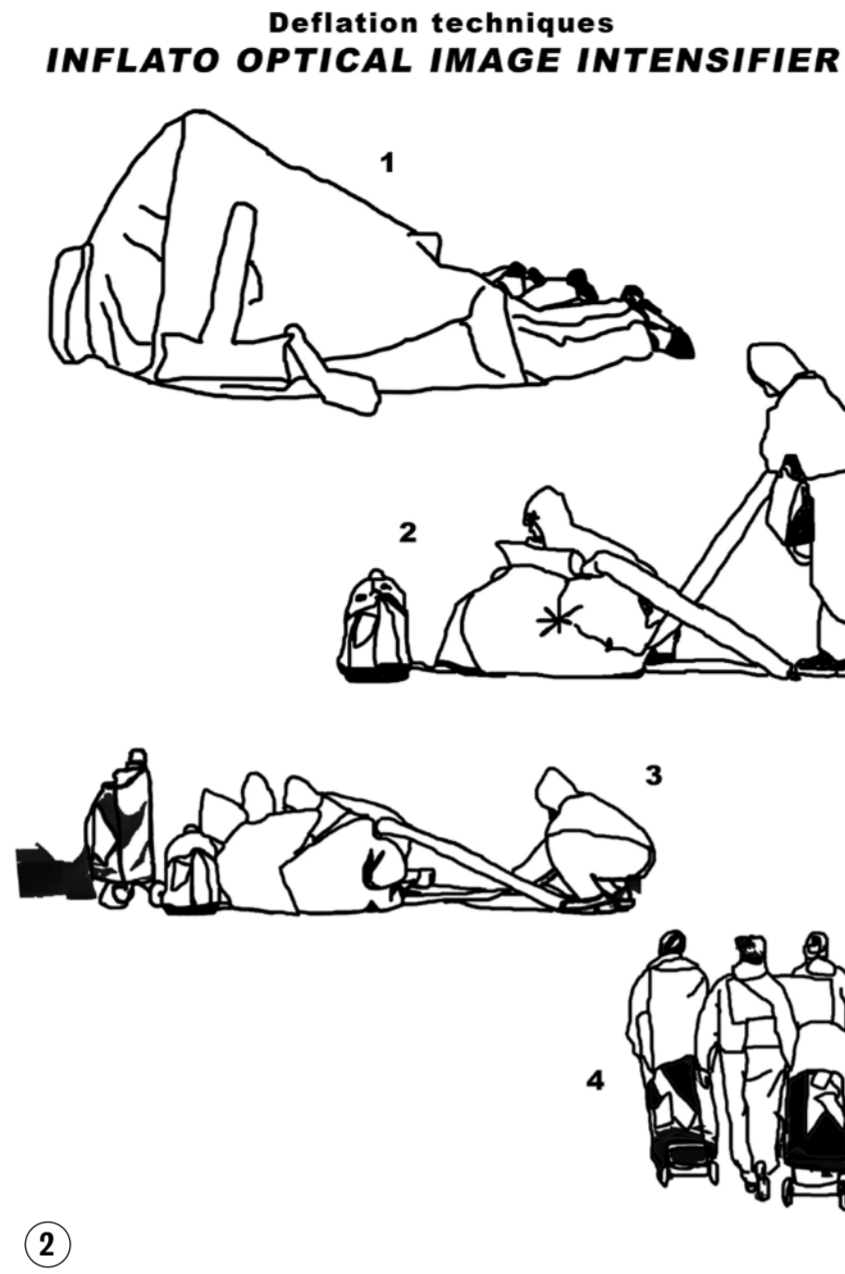

We use a DIY ethos and a collaborative approach to produce projects that respond to people and places; exploring ways we can create our own culture and reinvent our everyday.

‘engagement, commitment and fresh air’

Pester & Rossi’s practice derives from visual art and leads to producing live art, sculpture, installation, public interventions and collaborations in response to people and places.

‘create the condition you describe’

Listen to your hunches.
Play by your own rules.
Embrace the unknown.
Make your own sense.
Turn it upside down
Less talk, more action.
Into your own hands,
Make a move. Pass it on.
Loosen up. Assemble. Unfetter.

Our play,
Our party,
Our work.
