

Project team structure

Team roles

Leadership team

What they do

- Final decision makers
- Kept informed along the course of the project and able to contribute their thinking
- Invested in the outcome and support the work of the team across the organisation

Key project roles

- Decision-making and air cover for the core team

In-house project team

What they do

- The soul of the project and its chief designers
- Own the project plan and ensure it stays on track
- The Project Lead manages the core team and liaises with the extended and leadership teams.

Key project roles

- Accountable for the outputs of the project
- Owners of the design process.
- Facilitators of the conversations and input when bringing in collaborators

Extended team

What they do

- People identified as subject matter experts (coming from the policy space and/or delivery space)
- Contribute their expertise to the challenge

Key project roles

- Providing subject matter expertise
- Can act as reviewers of the core team's work.